News of Vichy Break Brings No Comment from Capital

New American Landings Are Reported to Have Been Made On Atlantic Coast of Morocco

By JAMES M. LONG
Associated Press War Editor

The White House disclosed today that President Roosevelt has notified the bey of Tunis that the powerful A. E. F. in North Africa hopes to pass through French Tunisia, which lies between the present American landings in Algeria and Axis-held Libya.

Such a move would catch the Axis in a nutcracker and clear the way for a second front against Hitler's Europe.

Already the swift-striking United States troops had moved into surrendered Algiers, virtually surrounded the Algerian naval base of Oran, and cut the coastal roads north and south of Casablanca on the Atlantic coast of Morocco.

The president's message was transmitted to the bey, Sidi Moncef Pacha, Saturday night.

On the east, the hard-driving British Eighth Army had won back Egypt and chased the tattered remnant of Field Marshal Rommel's armored force back into Libya, where every mile of retreat brought him closer to the eventual striking range of the Americans.

Vichy broadcasts reported new American landings on the Atlantic coast of Morocco, said French naval forces suffered severe losses in a naval battle outside the Port of Casablanca, declared that Casablanca itself had been bombarded heavily, and described the naval base at Oran on the Mediterranean coast of Algeria as virtually encircled.

An Allied headquarters spokesman said the powerful American challenge to Hitler has been accomplished with but slight losses. He emphasized that the campaign was still in the initial landing stage, with the implication that the scope of the unfolding operation would prove vaster yet.

German and Italian planes were said to have attacked the heavily guarded Allied convoy fleet off the Algerian coast, but the landing forces already had their own land based air protection from captured airfields.

There was no confirmation of a German claim that Axis planes had scored bomb hits on six Allied warships and four merchantment and that a U-boat had torpedoed a British cruiser of the Leander class.

Algiers capitulated. United States sea and air-borne troops had closed upon the important capital city of Algeria from east and west, seizing Sidi Ferruch and Aintaya without a struggle and taking Maison Blanche and Blida airdromes in swift combat team operations yesterday—the brightest Sunday since Pearl Harbor.

Admiral Jean Darlan, anti-British commander of all Vichy armed forces, authorized the surrender of the colonial capital last night. British and American naval forces entered the harbor this morning. Vichy broadcasts said the formal armistice agreement was signed at 10 a. m. (6 a. m. EWT).

The Stars and Stripes and the Union Jack flew over the harbor front, and Lieut. Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's fighting men streamed ashore along with fliers of the RAF. American fighter planes already were poised on the captured airdromes around the city alert for Axis air attacks from across the Mediterranean.

Darlan, himself, may have been captured along with the city he surrendered. His fate was not disclosed immediately.

Elsewhere along the Algerian and Moroccan coasts on the Mediterranean and Atlantic, United States forces were reported moving speedily inland toward their objectives.

Resistance, ordered by pathetic old Marshal Petain who professed "bewilderment and sadness" at the attack, seemed confined mostly to French naval and coast guard forces. Inland the French and native populations were greeting the Americans as friends.

The coastal defense bore the earmarks of mere token resistance, such as the French put up at Madagascar, sufficient only to keep the French homeland clear of Nazi retribution.

Vichy said the new American landings on the Moroccan coast were made at Agadir and Mogador, south of Casablanca, presumably late yesterday.

French troops rushed to the scenes of other landings were resisting the Americans who established beachhead wedges at Safi,

Convention Of Armistice Is Completed

Lieut. Eisenhower Signs For United States and Gen. Voeldz for Enemy

CROWD SEES ARRIVAL

London, Nov. 9—(AP)—The Vichy radio reported today that British and United States naval forces entered the port of Algiers this morning following its capitulation and had begun landing American infantry and Royal Air Force personnel.

Another broadcast report from the Vichy radio said the formal armistice convention for Algiers was signed at 10 a. m. today (6 a. m.) today.

It said Lieut. Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhauer, AEF commander, signed for the United States and General Voeldz, commander of the 19th French Army Corps, signed for France.

An Algiers dispatch said that at 10 a. m. one transport and one destroyer flying the British flag were tied up at the docks.

The Union Jack was hoisted over the quayside of the Campagnie General Transatlantique (French Line), but the French tricolor remained over the admiralty and government building.

A large crowd witnessed the arrival of the American and British forces.

When the first two vessels reached the dock, several destroyers lay off the port while large warships appeared on the horizon.

Admiral Jean Darlan, Vichy commander of all armed forces, was declared to have authorized the armistice for humanitary reasons.

Resistance of North Africa in general, however, was not affected, it was pointed out.

PANZER ARMY IN LYBIA IS STILL ON RUN

Some Hostile Elements Still Holding Out at Matruh Reported To Have Capitulated

TANK FORCES BLASTED

By the Associated Press

From Egypt, Lieut. Gen. B. L. Montgomery's army of the Nile reported:

"Pursuit of the remnants of the panzer army into Libya continued throughout yesterday. Some hostile elements which were still holding out at Matruh (104 miles west of the old El Alamein line) capitulated yesterday. Many more prisoners were collected yesterday, including the commander of the Pavia division."

British and American planes blasted on relentlessly at Rommel's fleeing tank forces and his disordered lines of supply.

German broadcasts were glum. The best light that the Berlin commentators were able to put on the retreat to Libya was that Rommel's armored force—or what remained of it—had escaped encirclement.

This scrap of consolation was paid for dearly by Italy. Six of her infantry divisions, the Trento, Pavia, Bologna, Bescia, Folgore and Trieste, were callously abandoned

Hitler Says He Will Not Flee Germany

London Nov. 9—(AP)—Adolf Hitler promised the German people last night that he would strike back at the American forces in North Africa and assured them that he would never flee Germany if the situation became difficult.

The German leader, speaking to his oldest Nazi party associates in Munich on the anniversary of the 1923 Munich putsch, brushed aside the smashing of his army in Egypt by the British as "an advance of a few kilometers" and declared that "those who deal out the last blow will win the war and the Germans will do that."

Hitler referred only fleetingly to the American landings in Algeria and Morocco, asserting that the "last and decisive word will not be spoken by Mr. Roosevelt."

Hitler referred to the outcome of the war again and again, emphasized that he had no doubt of final victory and reminded his people that in the course of the war "absolute faith is necessary in order not to despair."

"Now there is only one thing left," he said. "One of two worlds must fall. We will not fall, consequently others must fall."

He explained his failure to take Stalingrad with the declaration that it was "not worth a second Verdun. The important thing is that no ship can come up the Volga."

It isn't possible, he said, to achieve successes every week.

African Situation At A Glance

By the Associated Press

Algiers Capitulates; U. S. forces close by land, sea and air upon other bases in French North and West Africa to block out Hitler. Scant opposition is noted at most landing beaches.

Vichy severs relations with Washington. French radio says battleship Jean Bart and four French submarines hit by Allied dive-bombers and two Allied destroyers sunk; Morocco garrisons are reported reinforced.

De Gaulle calls upon troops and colonists to join Americans; Gen. Henri Honore Giraud is reported to have urged them in an Algerian broadcast not to miss "the opportunity of recovery."

Rome radio commentator says "the horizon is black for Italy—we must expect attacks from any quarter." Hitler tacitly concedes Allied initiative, but says he will strike back

Have To Pay More For Turkey Day Dinners

Harrisburg, Nov. 8—(AP)—Pennsylvanians will have plenty of turkeys for their Thanksgiving dinners this year but they'll have to pay more to obtain the traditional holiday dish.

John H. Light, secretary of agriculture, reported yesterday the supply would reach 1,020,000 turkeys, a record high for the state and a 10 per cent increase over last year.

He said the price was 11½ cents a pound above the 1910-14 parity and the late October lists of 29 cents per pound, liveweight, two cents over September and four cents more than last year.

Parolee Kills Himself After Shooting Girl

Wounds Ex-Fiancee Then Fires Barn in Which He Is Hiding

HIS THIRD OFFENSE

Doyestown, Nov. 9—(AP)—A 28-year-old prison parolee committed suicide in a burning barn yesterday after seriously wounding his ex-fiance with a shotgun Saturday night, Dr. H. Clayton Moyer, Bucks county coroner, reported.

Fire in a large barn on the farm of the girl's father virtually consumed the body of Howard Wieand of Quakertown. The girl, Eleanor H. Haring, 21, was expected to recover from hip wounds but doctors feared she may be crippled permanently.

Dr. Moyer said that Wieand was arrested and placed on probation in July, 1940, after backing his automobile into the girl following a quarrel. In May, 1941, he was sent to prison for threatening her with a shotgun and he was paroled four weeks ago after serving a minimum sentence of a year and a half.

Mrs. Armina Gould Packer, 37, of Wellsboro, was killed when struck by a car while she was walking home between Tioga and Mansfield.

John Richards, 45, was killed by a hit-and-run driver at Scranton.

WIFE OF PUBLISHER DIES IN WASHINGTON

Washington, Nov. 9—(AP)—Mrs. Janet Newbold Noyes, 75, wife of Frank B. Noyes, president of the Evening Star Newspaper Company and for years president of the Associated Press, died last night after an illness of several months.

Mrs. Noyes, a daughter of Lt. Col. Charles Newbold and Frances Kemper Lowe Newbold, was born at Dayton, Ohio.

Will Strike Into Tunisia

Washington, Nov. 9—(AP)—President Roosevelt has notified the bey of Tunis that the American armed forces in North Africa hope to pass through French Tunisia, apparently to strike eastward toward the Axis forces now retreating from Egypt.

The White House disclosed today that the message had been delivered Saturday night to the bey, Sidi Moncef Pacha.

Tunisia is a French protectorate lying between Algiers, which American troops already have entered, and Italian-controlled Libya. The bey is the nominal governor of Tunisia.

While the chief executive's message was couched in friendly, polite terms, it could be regarded as a sort of ultimatum to let United States forces go through Tunisia Axis forces.

SOVIETS ARE HOLDING ON STUBBORNLY

Russians Watch Developing African Offensive Hopeful Of Relief For Embattled Forces

HELSINKI IS RAIDED

By the Associated Press

The Russians watched the developing offensive in Africa closely, hopeful of any relief, and their armies held on as stubbornly as ever in the ruins of Stalingrad and the snow-swept slopes of the Caucasus.

Red army tanks were said to have smashed German efforts to get their stalled drive under way again in the Nalchik reigon at the approach to the Caucasus passes where the Nazis have been held virtually to a standstill since Nov. 3.

New German attacks on Stalingrad were reported beaten off, but these were on only a small scale.

The Berlin radio broadcast a Helsinki dispatch that 45 persons were killed and 125 injured yesterday in a noon raid on the Finnish capital by Russian bombers.

American flying foreresses followed up their Saturday raid on the Nazi u-boat base at Brest, on the French coast, with another heavy blow yesterday to Hitler's war machine by battering the important locomotive works at Lille and the German airdrome at Abbeville. Losses were one fortress and six of the mixed Allied fighter escort.

Japan's last hold on the teeming green jungles of southeastern New Guinea—stepping stone to Australia—was shaken today by American soldiers who hacked their way into striking distance of the invaders' base at Buna after probably the greatest air-borne infantry movement in history had caught the Japanese flat-footed.

On Guadalcanal, too, indomitable American fighting men were on the advance, rolling the Japanese back to the east of Hender-

VINDICATION OF GEN. MARTIN LOOMS NEAR

Washington, Pa., Nov. 9—(AP)—Judge Howard Hughes directed J. M. Prigg, Washington realtor, to file formal notice today of his request to withdraw a petition to void a compromise settlement which Governor-Elect Edward Martin made in settling a debt with a Washington bank. The court also set Nov. 16 for clarification of the stand of Prigg's counsel.

Prigg personally requested the withdrawal Friday and Judge Hughes asked that his two attorneys, W. R. Dennison and H. Russell Stahlman, appear in court.

Dennison asked the court to withhold further action.

BULLETINS

Bern, Switzerland, Nov. 9—(AP)—Switzerland will be blacked out nightly beginning at 8 p. m. hereafter instead of at 10 p. m., it was announced today.

Rostov, Nov. 9—(AP)—Declaring that the American offensive in North Africa cannot be interpreted as an aggression but is, on the contrary, a first step for the liberation of France, Francois Briere, French consul at Boston since 1937, today resigned his post.

Moscow, Nov. 9—(AP)—United States operations in Africa drew a prominent display today in the government newspaper Pravda, theonly paper puglishing here today, and comment on the chilly street corners was approving.

Chungking, Nov. 9—(AP)—The Chinese press today jubilantly hailed the landing of American troops in North Africa as the harbinger of still another front either in Italy or Greece and Ta Kung Pao said "the turning point of the war has been reached."

London, Nov. 9—(AP)—The admiralty announced today that two u-boats were sunk and several others were probably damaged in a battle with a convoy in the North Atlantic recently which lasted five days and nights.

Boston, Nov. 9—(AP)—Robert P. Patterson, undersecretary of war, announced today an October box score of 141 planes to 10 for United States army airmen in battling Axis forces.

Latest Move Changes Entire Picture In Mediterranean

BY PAUL KERN LEE

Cairo, Nov. 8—(Delayed)—(AP)—The British Eighth Army's lightning blows against the Axis forces in Egypt, coupled with the landing of United States troops in French North Africa, have changed the entire picture in the Mediterranean basin.

Within a fortnight grave concern over the outlook has given way to a rising tide of optimism, inspired by the most hopeful tokens of ultimate victory in three years of conflict.

Early opening of a reasonably safe Allied supply route through the Mediterranean is one of the numerous advantages which may well stem from current developments.

Once Field Marshal Rommel is taken care of and Axis domination over French North Africa is ended, British and American airmen should make it possible for Allied ships to ply the Mediterranean in comparative safety, thus shortening vital supply lines to India, Australia and Russia.

The Axis chieftain now has the devil's own choice—to run or fight: Whichever he does is bad for him.

Hitherto he had the possibility of trying to save something of his African corps by a hasty retreat, abandoning some six Italian divisions to destruction while getting out with his German troops and at least part of their armored equipment.

Now, however, he is only shortening the distance between himself and the powerful American forces pouring into Algeria.

Vichy Musters Her Limited Resources To Fight Invaders

Decision To Resist United States Is Taken By Petain After Conferences

PRESS IS RESTRICTED

Bern, Switzerland, Nov. 9—(AP)—The Vichy government, having severed diplomatic relations with the United States in a weekend of rapid-fire developments, mustered its limited resources today in an effort to fight off United States forces invading its North African possessions. The decision to resist was taken by Marshal Petain, chief of state, yesterday after he had called in his highest advisers to study reports of a situation which Vichy dispatches described as grave.

General Maxime Weygand, former pro-consul for North Africa, flew to Vichy from his riviera retreat to confer with Petain, Pierre Laval and other French leaders yesterday and later was reported to have left by plane for Algeria.

Amendment To Draft Bill Turned Down

House Against Proposal To Give 'Teen Age Men Year's Training

WORK ON COMPROMISE

Washington, Nov. 9—(AP)—The house refused to go on record today in favor of a senate proposal that teen age drafted soldiers be given one year of training before being sent into combat.

It voted down a motion by Representative Rankin (D-Miss) to instruct house conferees to accept a compulsory training amendment written by the senate into house legislation lowering the draft age from 20 to 18 years.

The standing vote was announced by Speaker Rayburn as 178 to 40. Rankin failed to get enough support to force a roll-call vote.

The action left the house conferees free to work out any compromise they could effect with the senate and bring it back to the house for ratification, and indications were the conferees would recommend elimination of the senate provision, which the president and the war and navy department have opposed.

PROMINENT MAN DIES

Philadelphia, Nov. 9—(AP)—Philadelphia city officials and political leaders will attend funeral services today for Andrew J. Emanuel, former public safety director who died Friday. He was 73 and retired in 1939, after 44 years of service, during which time he rose from patrolman to head the public safety department.

SAVE-THE-MEAT PLAN

Pittsburgh, Nov. 9—(AP)—Pittsburgh's Hotel, Restaurant and Retail Meat Dealers' Associations have rejected a proposal for "meatless days" in faovr of a nation-wide "share the meat campaign". The groups suggested each person voluntarily limit himself to 2½ pounds of meat a week.

Paris Radio Tells Of Riots In That City

London, Nov. 9—(AP)—Reuters recorded a Paris announcement today that clashes had broken out between demonstrators and police in the German-occupied French capital.

The demonstrations, described as "a few small incidents," followed a meeting of the French People's Party at which Collaborationist Jacques Doriot demanded "an immediate declaration of war on Britain and America and immediate conclusion of an alliance with the Axis powers."

The procession began to march to the tomb of the unknown soldier, according to the version of the Nazi-controlled Paris radio, shouting "fight the British" and "down with the British murderers." Then, it said, police "attempted to break up the procession."

Today's outbreaks followed police action yesterday in breaking up crowds during a pro-German demonstration in Paris and the banning of a meeting planned for last night by Doriot's followers. This government action was said to have been taken because of the danger of disorders resulting from intense feeling of opposing factions over the American operations in North Africa.

One Command Plan Opposed

Washington, Nov. 9—(AP)—Proposals for a joint house and senate "high command" committee on the conduct of the war were confronted today with the prospect of stiff opposition from the Democratic leadership.

An unofficial, but authoritative, source reported that the majority leadership would resist "and make it stick" any attempt on the part of the Republicans to form a liaison committee between congress and the administration's war agencies.

Mut, despite that opposition, a move for the formation of such a committee, originally advocated Rep. Dirksen (R-Ill) to coordinate congressional action on war legislation, appeared to be gaining strength with the Republican election resurgence

APPEAL FOR COOPERATION IS REJECTED

LEADERS ARE GRATIFIED

BULLETIN

Washington, Nov. 9—(AP)—Official word came to the state department today that France, as represented by the Vichy government, had broken off relations with the United States. The department, stonily indifferent to how Pierre Laval and his fellows feel about the liberation move of American forces into French North Africa, supplied no details of the formal rupture and made no comment. It merely said S. Pinkney Tuck, American charge de'affairs at Vichy, had transmitted Laval's note of yesterday.

BY THOMAS A. REEDY

Washington, Nov. 9—(AP)—United States forces, "in control" of the sea and air and apparently meeting only token resistance on land, stormed ahead rapidly in French North Africa today and the long-awaited "second front" drive snapped the 150-year-diplomatic friendship between the American and French governments, as represented by Vichy.

Formal notice of the severance of relations was served at Vichy yesterday by Pro-Nazi Pierre Laval, chief of the Vichy government, on U. S. Charge D'Affaires S. Pinkney Tuck as a powerful American invasion army advanced into French colonies along a 1,000-mile stretch of the African coast.

News of the break brought no formal comment from Washington officials, but it was understood that this government would view it with indifference. Secretary of State Hull had said earlier that the primary purpose for representation at Vichy had been served, since it had enabled the United States to pave the way for the current military operations.

Vichy French Ships Seized

Washington, Nov. 9—(AP)—Secretary of State Hull disclosed today that all Vichy French ships in American ports had been taken into protective custody.

Hull also said that passports for Vichy's ambassador, Gaston Henry-Haye, were ready and would be handed to him in due time.

The secretary told his press conference that Henry-Haye had not yet requested an appointment to see him, but that such a visit in any case would not be necessary.

Asked whether the French ambassador and his staff would be interned pending their return to France on an exchange ship, as were the Japanese, German and Italian diplomats, Hull said the situation in this case was different.

Hull's disclosure concerning the seizure of Vichy French ships was in answer to a question about the reported seizure of three Vichy French freighters by the coast guard at New Orleans.

Chapman Considered for Post Of Senate President Pro-Tem

BY WICK TEMPLE

Harrisburg, Nov. 9—(AP)—Two veteran legislators today declared themselves definite candidates for speakership of the 1943 Pennsylvania house of representatives while others were mentioned prominently for the key job.

Edwin Winner, Montgomery county, and Harry E. Trout, Lancaster county, said they were in the race. H. David Sarge, Lebanon, and Thomas B. Stockman, Bucks, figured in discussions with them.

Republican leaders headed by Governor-Elect Edward Martin, however, insisted that legislative organization had not been discussed and probably wouldn't be for possibly two weeks.

The party wrested house control from the Democrats and retained its senate majority in last week's general election sweep, assuring Martin of a workable margin in both branches to carry out his program.

Reorganization of the senate may result in Senator Charles H. Ealy of Somerset being retained as president pro-tempore, Senator LeRoy E. Chapman, Warren county and one of the oldest members of the chamber in point of service, is mentioned as a possibility, however.

There is some question of Weldon B. Heyburn replacing James A. Geltz as floor leader especially in view of the big Delaware county Republican vote which Heyburn directed

Fiftieth Anniversary Of The Founding Of B.P.O.E. Lodge Is Appropriately Observed

Some 300 members of Warren Lodge 223, B. P. O. Elks observed the 50th anniversary of the founding of the local lodge with services at the Elk's Home yesterday afternoon and evening.

Headlining the activities in the afternoon was the meeting of the lodge in which honorary life memberships were awarded to five members of over 40 years standing. They were A. L. Schellhammer, A. A. Printz, W. V. Geer, H. W. Baker and George E. Colvin. Preceding the awards of life memberships the entire lodge stood in respectful silence in honor of the 38 members now in active military service.

The meeting was in charge of H. D. Baker, exalted ruler and the opening prayer was given by D. A. Smith, P. E. R., president of the North District. The honorary memberships were presented, on behalf of the local lodge, by A. A. Albaugh, P. E. R. and present trustee.

P. E. Nelson, P. E. R. gave an entertaining and interesting account of the Lodge's history over the past 50 years. He told of its formation, reviewed interesting antecdotes of some of its early members and traced its moves from its first lodge rooms on Second avenue, until it occupied its present quarters at 4th and Hickory street in 1940. Mr. Nelson concluded his remarks by stating that the real history of the lodge could be found behind the lives of the deceased members whose names and memory are honored on the lodge's roll of honor. By carrying on the fine work for the next 50 years, that these men have carried on for the first 50 years we shall be sure our 100th anniversary will give us occasion to feel proud, the speaker concluded.

In announcing that the Elks annual Memorial Sunday would be held on December 6th, the first Sunday in December, Mr. Baker pointed out that the first Memorial Sunday occurred on the first Sunday of December in 1892 and that this would be the 50th anniversary of such days. Mr. Baker also thanked the various committees who had worked to make the day a success; especially complimenting Ross L. Ruhlman, general chairman and members of the house committee.

Gifts of flowers from the Knights of Columbus, the Warren Lodge of Moose and the V. F. W. were appropriately acknowledged. Messages were read from a score or more of out of town members who could not be present in person and it was announced that 270 reservations had been received for the banquet which was held at 6 o'clock.

Following the banquet, served by members of the American Legion Auxiliary, the new life members were introduced and short responses were heard from several of them. Music for the banquet was provided by an orchestra under the direction of Merle L. Jordan. An entertainment was presented at 9 o'clock followed by a buffet lunch at 11:30.

Nine Hundred Idle Tires Go To Warehouse

Warren automobile owners are complying in fine shape with the ruling whereby all idle tires are to be sent to Uncle Sam. The express company agency here was sent blanks for the handling of the tires on the basis of one blank to each 30 of the town's population. The supply only lasted a few days and four times additional supplies have been received and these were exhausted Saturday and additional blanks are expected this morning. So far 900 tires and 6 tubes have been shipped from Warren. One auto owner sent in 18 tires to the Buffalo warehouse. Idle tires in the hands of dealers remain a problem to the express agency as they have no authority to pick up tires from dealers. Several here have racks of tires they are anxious to ship in but the express company cannot handle them on the same basis as the tires of an individual.

New Inspection Deadline

Philadelphia, Nov. 9—(AP)—The deadline for mandatory inspection of commercial motor vehicle tires has been changed from Nov. 15 to Jan. 15, Melvin R. Greene, regional director of the motor transport division, office of defense transportation, said today.

After the first inspection, tires must be inspected every 60 days or every 5,000 miles, whichever is completed first, Greene said.

After each inspection the inspector must certify that all reasonable and possible adjustments, repairs or replacements have been made before the vehicle can be operated.

MUST SIGN OWN BLANK

Every car owner in making application for a gas ration card must sign his own application. There is only one exception and that is for the man in the United States service who is out of the country. Otherwise the car owner's name must be attached to the application. Thus if a husband is working out of town and his wife is using the car she must mail the application to her husband and have him sign the blank.

During 1940, there were 20,950 farm foreclosures in the United States.

GABLE, TURNER TOGETHER AGAIN IN TIMELY DRAMA OF LOVE AND ADVENTURE

Clark Gable and LLana Turner co-star again in "Somewhere I'll Find You," the new Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer drama of war correspondents in the Far East, which opens at the Library Theatre today and Tuesday. Their first co-starring film was "Honky Tonk."

Gable and Robert Sterling, as brothers, and newspapermen, are both in love with Miss Turner, also a correspondent on duty in Indo-China. The rivalry if rudely interrupted by the bombing of Pearl Harbor, which throws them into the maelstrom as something more than neutral observers.

The supporting cast is excellent, including Patricia Dane, as a beautiful adventuress in the Far East, Reginald Owen and Lee Patrick, as denizens of Greenwich Village in New York, Tamara Shawne, Charles Dingle, Leonid Kinskey, Diana Lewis and Sara Haden.

The sewing machines formerly used for sewing automobile upholstery are now used by relocated Japanese for sewing tents and tarpaulins.

Five Simple Rules Compiled Which Will Save Much Time

In conjunction with registration on Thursday, Friday and Saturday in preparation for the gasoline rationing program, those in charge point out that car and motorcycle owners may save much time for themselves, neighbors and school employes if they will follow five simple rules. They are:

1. Register when requested. 2. Register where indicated. 3. Bring material you need. 4. Have application completed. 5. Have serial number of federal tax stamp.

Each school student in Warren will take home today a copy of the detailed instructions for registering and those effected are asked to study them carefully before Thursday.

Registrations will be conducted by the teachers in the schools specified, hours to be from 4 to 8:30 p. m. Thursday and Friday evenings and on Saturday from 9 to 11:30 a. m. Residents are asked to register at the elementary school nearest their home, observing an alphabetical order to avoid confusion and needless standing in line for hours.

Those whose names begin with letters A to and including L will register November 12; those from M to and including Z will report on November 13. Saturday morning registrations will be held at the high school for those unable to go to the appointed stations on either of the two previous evenings.

The following territories have been defined and all are asked to comply with the regulations:

At East street school—All on Union and east of Union to the Conewango Creek; all of the South Side including Seneca avenue.

At McClintock school—West of Union, 800 and higher, but not including any on Union.

At Home street school—All on north side of Terrace, odd numbers, and thence north to borough limits.

At Johnson school—All on Oak, Elm, Peach and in 100 block on Pennsylvania avenue; all on west side, odd numbers, Crescent to Jackson to Conewango Creek; all between Jackson including north side, odd numbers, to and including south side, even numbers, of Terrace.

At South street school—West side, odd numbers, of Central avenue to Jackson, including the south side, even numbers, of Jackson to Crescent. On Crescent, even numbers, east side to Pennsylvania avenue. From Elm, east to extension of Central avenue but not including any on Elm. On Pennsylvania avenue beginning with 200 east to but not including 1200 east.

At Lacy school—East side, even numbers, of Central avenue and all east of Central.

It is particularly important that each person bring Form R-534 which is received from garage, filling station, county rationing board or Warren County Motor Club office; his motor vehicle registration card; the serial number of his federal tax stamp. Owners are reminded, also, they must have a Form R-534 for each passenger automobile and each motorcycle.

The schools are responsible for the registration but do not "know the answers", it is stated, such queries to be directed to the county rationing board in the Warren National Bank building, Room 404, or phone 3077.

Thwarted in their costly campaign to take by storm or siege the city that bears the name of Stalin, German troops now drive southward toward the land of his birth—the Caucasian Soviet republic of Georgia.

Winter comes first and last to Russia's Caucasus. Snow is already deep in the lofty mountains while warm winds still sweep the southern shores of the Black and Caspian seas.

The complex Caucasus is a historic, legendary region known for its fierce mountain tribesmen, its mineral riches and—most of all—its oil. In the 16 pint-sized Caucasus republics—there is a confusing variety of races, languages, customs and costume.

Hitler has already captured some of the Caucasus oil, at Maikop, and the highest mountain of the saw-toothed range, Mt. Elbrus, But his lust for fuel to keep his war machine moving seems to have prompted this new thrust toward the southern Caucasus.

Blocked at Mozdok in their drive on the rich Grozny oil fields, the Nazis may be trying a flanking attack in their thrust toward Ordzhonikidze and the Ossetin and Georgian military highways. Or they may plan to risk a crossing of the Caucasus via these routes despite snow and the perils of avalanche.

On the southern side of the mountains is the republic of Georgia, whose name and history go back to Biblical times. The Germans marched here once before when, in January, 1918, they occupied the area after it became an important state during the Russian revolution. Georgia later entered the Soviet Union along with its neighbor republics of Armenia and Azerbaijan.

Once in Georgia, and at its capital Tiflis, the Germans would have clear transit over low country to either Batum or oil-rich Baku. But is Stalingrad—the city of Stalin—could hold against the Nazi might, perhaps the region of his birth can serve the Soviet leader as well.

Sportsman Is Laid To Rest At Tidioute

Services were being held this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Sage Funeral Home in Tidioute in memory of Samuel Roy Nicholson, well known Warren county sportsman, who died suddenly from a heart attack while hunting in the woods in Eldred township near Grand Valley Friday afternoon about 4:30 o'clock.

Mr. Nicholson, who was familiarly known as "Barney", in company with William Byers of Tidioute, had gone hunting in Eldred township, Warren county, about 1 o'clock Friday afternoon. The hunt progressed until about 4:30 when Mr. Nicholson called for his companion.

Realizing that something was seriously wrong, Myers immediately summoned aid. Dr. F. M. Buckingham of Tidioute, who reached the scene pronounced the victim of the heart attack dead about 4:45.

Coroner Ed Lowrey, who investigated the case, issued a certificate of death from natural causes.

Nicholson is survived by his wife and five children, Dean, Ardelle, Fayetta and James at home, and Roy. The family makes their home on what is known as Triumph hill, near Titusville.

Mr. Nicholson, an employe of the Clinger Oil and Gas Company, was active in promoting hunting and fishing throughout the area, and was well and favorably known to a host of friends.

The death was the second of this nature in the district since the start of the small game season, according to the division game supervisor, Hayes T. Englert, a McKeesport hunter dropping dead Thursday while hunting in Lawrence county.

Bond Sales Quotas For Forest And Warren Counties Raised 5% Over Previous Two Months

The War Savings Committee of Warren and Forest counties has received from the Treasury Department the monthly county sales quotas for November, which are increased 5 per cent from the previous two months. These set a goal of $161,805 for Warren county and $9,450 for Forest county in the sale of all three series of War Savings Bonds.

Final results for October cannot yet be reported as it is necessary for the Federal Reserve Bank of Cleveland to compile these reports from the many issuing agencies in nineteen counties in Western Pennsylvania and this requires considerable time.

The most important part of War Bond sales is in the payroll deduction plan, which is now in effect in seventy-one industries and other organizations in Warren and Forest counties. The importance of this effort was recently stated by the Treasury Department in showing that an estimated three billion dollars a year in bonds are being purchased by 21 million workers under the payroll deduction plan. Employes of more than 148,000 firms are now devoting 8% of gross payroll to War Bonds in comparison with 4% nine months ago, the records show. Workers in more than 25,000 establishments are putting at least 10% of their pay into the bonds.

Scrap Dealers Given Banners Signifying Excellent Work

Distinguished honors from the War Production Board came last week to two Warren Salvage dealers, Eli Gordon of 916 West 5th avenue and Smith Used Parts of Clark street. W. E. Stewart of the Board visited Warren and awarded each a banner signifying Scrap Producer Merit Award for their fine work in gathering, converting, and transmitting scrap for this district. Both firms were highly commended for their fine record. Mr. Gordon, who has been particularly energetic in his handling of salvage problems, was the second dealer in western Pennsylvania to receive this banner. Following is a copy of the letter from the War Production Board, Washington, D. C., a duplicate of which was received by each of these Warren dealers:

Gentlemen:

In accordance with instructions from the Chief of the Automobile Graveyard Section, Conservation Division of the War Production Board, I hereby notify you that you have been awarded the War Production Board's Scrap Producer Merit Award.

This award is granted to those Automobile Graveyards which conform to the policies of the Conservation Division as they now exist or may be modified in the future; whose loose scrap is moved as it is accumulated in conveniently transportable quantities; and whose yard is on a 60-day turnover or less; or whose performance, in the opinion of the Conservation Manager of the Region, represents really outstanding work.

The emblem, signifying this award, will be delivered to you within the next few days by a representative of the Automobile Graveyard Section who will get in touch with you before making the presentation. It should be prominently displayed at your yard, not only as inspiration to all Americans who may see it as well as to your fellow workers in the yard who have helped to win it.

The War Production Board reserves the right to withdraw the emblem and this award, should your cooperation at some time in the future not justify its retention by you.

On behalf of the War Production Board, I wish to congratulate you and your men on the splendid work you are doing which is a fine contribution toward winning the war: a record which you will continue, and of which all men should be proud.

Yours very truly,
Blanchard Randall, Jr.

GUADALCANAL: The Situation Is Still Well in Hand

U. S. forces—occupying only a small section of mountainous Guadalcanal Island—are continuing to hold their own in battles against Japs on both sides of them. The Americans landed on Tulagi, Tanambogo, Gavutu and Guadalcanal in August and have made occasional clean-up raids on Florida Island. In October Japs began landing reinforcements in northwest Guadalcanal, and have recently put more troops ashore east of U. S. positions. Now our forces (arrows) are attacking the enemy across the Matanikau and Tenaru rivers.

Pound of SUGAR

It isn't on your pantry shelf . . . because it's gone to the War Front. You see, one pound of sugar supplies enough gunpowder to fire a machine gun 46 times. That's why sugar is rationed . . . why we are gladly doing without to speed Victory.

Gas, too, is speeding War Production. It is a vital element in providing the necessary fuel for the forges and furnaces of America. It is used to cook food in the Nation's Training Camps. Do your part by using Gas wisely.

THE SECOND FRONT

Speaking of the second front opened by United States and Allied forces in Africa over the weekend, Glenn Babb, Associated Press war analyst, warns "It would be easy—and dangerous—to draw from the temper of Munich and Rome and from the manifold reports of Allied successes the conviction that victory is just around the corner. The continent on which the Americans are landing is Africa, not Europe, and the successes being recorded for General Eisenhower's command are not against the real foe.

"The United States can well take pride and the United Nations draw high encouragement from this evidence of the ability of the American command to plan, prepare and carry through an undertaking so vast and so indicative of foresight, imagination and initiative. But this campaign, after all, is merely one of prevention and preparation and in so far as it involves the killing of Frenchmen a 'melancholy action,' to borrow the phrase Winston Churchill applied to its prelude at Mers-El-Kebir more than two years ago.

"We will do well to ponder the reminder of that grim realist, Joseph Stalin, that only 15 Axis divisions are involved in Africa, a twentieth of the forces that face the Russians and are deployed to keep the rest of Europe in subjection.

"But the beginning has been made. The United States marines—with a few hundred thousand of their American, British and Allied comrades—are on the way back to the Tripoli of their battle hymn. The next few weeks we may enjoy the pleasing spectacle of a friendly race between the Americans and General Montgomery's heroic British Eighth Army to determine which first enters Tripoli. But we must not let ourselves forget that the real job lies across the Mediterranean."

AMERICAN LEGION AUXILIARY

One of the most active women's groups in the community is the American Legion Auxiliary which is staging a membership drive and from the enthusiasm displayed by the officers and members it is safe to assume that the campaign will come to a successful conclusion Wednesday evening.

Membership is offered to wives, mothers, sisters and daughters of members of the Legion; also to those eligible through deceased World War veterans.

The first and only purpose of the American Legion Auxiliary is to serve with the American Legion for America. Security for America and all that America means in human happiness and liberty—security from foreign attack, from internal subversion and decay—for this the Auxiliary is continually striving.

The principles and ideals upon which the American republic was founded and for which its men have shed their blood are high in the hearts of the women of the Auxiliary.

The Auxiliary is working to keep patriotism part of the education of every child.

Approxiately one billion dollars are expended each year by the Auxiliary in hospital and welfare work for the benefit of the disabled. For the children of World War veterans the Auxiliary is also doing a very important work. It is aiding thousands of children every year to receive the necessities of life. Whenever children of men who served are found in need, the Auxiliary works side by side with the Legion to prevent the children from paying in suffering and lack of opportunity for the service their fathers gave to our country.

Units of the Auxiliary throughout the country are working with their posts for the betterment of their communities.

World conditions and conditions within our own country demand that strength and influence be given to the ideals and institutions of our country.

Warren unit's quota is 258 and workers are striving to reach that goal by Armtistice Day.

POPULAR SPORTSMAN DIES

The sudden death Friday afternoon of Samuel Roy Nicholson, more affectionately known to his scores of friends as "Barney", while following his favorite hobby of hunting small game in the vicinity of Grand Valley, removes one of the most active outdoor sportsmen in the county. Mr. Nicholson over a long period of years had worked untiringly in helping to promote projects for the betterment of hunting and fishng in the district, and the fruits of his labor will continue to be of benefit to followers of this popular recreation for years to come.

Looks like the Axis forces in Egypt certainly ran into more grit than just that of the desert sands.

The Master Race

Washington In Wartime

By JACK STINNETT

WASHINGTON — The try-out period for women in uniform in the U. S. armed forces is over. The ladies have made good.

It hasn't been announced yet but a big expansion of the uniformed women corps in the army, navy and other forces is in the immediate offing. The WAACs and WAVEs soon will be shooting at a total enrollment of 150,000 members each. Present laws place limitations on the numbers in both of these services but, according to rumor, that limitation soon will be removed. Rep. Edith Nourse Rogers, who introduced the original WAACs bill, has another coming up which would make the WAACs an integral part of the Army instead of a mere auxiliary.

ANOTHER Fort Des Moines (WAAC training center) may rise soon at Daytona Beach, Fla. The previously announced second training school for WAVEs at Mount Holyoke College, Mass., probably is the forerunner of additional centers in Iowa and Georgia.

The bill establishing the "Waracgs" (Women's Auxiliary of the Coast Guard) already has cleared the House of Representatives. The WAFs, under the direction of Nancy Harkness Love, is a small force but growing fast. These women in the auxiliary flying service will never catch up numerically with the WAACs and WAVEs, but proportionately they have a vital spot in the military scheme of things.

There's a great deal of mystery surrounding Jacqueline Cochran's army training school for women pilots, but it is known that she is drawing heavily on the ranks of 3,400 women pilots in the country and training others, without previous experience, to produce a corps of women flyers capable of piloting anything from an airborne "jeep" to a trans-oceanic clipper.

THE greatest strides so far have been made by the WAACs. In one small office here, 18 WAACs have taken over work previously done by soldiers capable of serving in the front lines. These aren't mere stenographic and clerical jobs ordinarily handled by civil service workers.

The army has made no announcement at this writing as to whether WAACs are serving overseas, but there are rumors that the uniforms are not uncommon in England.

THE Navy has been rather reluctant to hand its work over to the WAVEs. WAVEs assigned to jobs in Washington are still "shadows" of the naval officers they are supposed to supersede.

When our armed forces reach that prospective level of seven or eight million men, the women in uniform may total 10 per cent of that.

Man About Manhattan

By GEORGE TUCKER

NEW YORK—I have just read "No Hiding Place," the autobiography of William Seabrook, a book so frank and reflective of others that when I met Seabrook in the flesh I was bursting with the question: How do people react when they see themselves pictured unflatteringly in print?

He had the answer ready. "When I wrote 'The Magic Island' I really went to town on some of the officials and leading people of Haiti. The only people who got sore were those I didn't mention."

William Seabrook is a most unusual man. He chucked tailor-made careers on the Augusta Chronicle and the Atlanta Journal, quit an advertising business paying him thousands, enlisted with the French and was gassed at Verdun, tired of writing lurid but profitable pseudo-scientific articles, lived with the Bedouins and Druses, with voodoo worshippers in Haiti, with cannibals in West Africa; flew to Timbuctoo, married three times, and along about his 57th birthday next Feb. 22 hopes to become the father of a girl who will be named Sebastiana.

"IF IT'S a boy, as Constance hopes," he says, "we'll have to name him William Seabrook, I suppose, and that will be too bad because I'm the seventh William Seabrook and the world has had too many of us."

(His tall, red-headed wife is the former Constance Kuhr, herself a writer, and their home is a remodeled barn at Rhinebeck, N. Y.)

Apparently it was a relief for him to write his autobiography, to get down on paper all the cankerous and admittedly unreasonable hatred he bore for his late brother, Charlie, to whom the book is dedicated. He dared to write of Charlie, and his autocratic mother, and his preacher father, and his two former wives, and his friends, just as he once dared to have himself confined to an institution as an alcoholic and dared write a best-selling book ("Asylum") about that.

"The key figures in the book all saw advance proofs," he told me. "We only changed one little thing, about a moonshine still. If you write of people with malice, they have a right to get sore, but even though the description is sensational they seldom are hurt and seldom angered. I hope I have written without bitterness and malice."

I FOUND him tranquil and clear-eyed, boyishly eager for a word of praise about his writings, for always he has been tormented with the idea that he fell short in expressing himself, or that he could write better if he were somewhere else — just as I am dissatisfied with this jumbled impression of him. He is a tall man, somewhat heavy, with blue eyes and steel-gray hair and a close-cropped mustache. On his elbows are scars from burns received when he deliberately thrust them into scalding water so he could not bend them to drink. "I was sincere about that," he said. "It was big league stuff with me, and it worked. I've got drinking licked."

GALAPAGOS ISLANDS

One-time hangout of pirates, whalers; more recently of scientists studying the islands' strange plants, birds and animals, including 400-pound tortoises that live 400 years. Galapagos is Spanish for tortoise. Volcanic islands are equatorial, but cooled by Humboldt current; are sometimes as foggy as Aleutians.

Three American outposts in Latin America form a defensive chain on the Pacific side of the Panama Canal, as well as providing patrol centers to guard the west coasts of the Americas. U. S. bombers have been patrolling the Central American area from a Guatemalan air base since last March; Ecuador recently announced occupation of their Galapagos Islands and Santa Elena Peninsula by American troops as a hemisphere defense move.

GRANGE NOTES

WARREN GRANGE

Past Master C. J. Frantz presided for the regular meeting of Warren Grange, when names were presented for an election of officers on November 18. An auction was held of articles donated by members, proceeds to be used to send gifts to boys in service. Any member having a son or daughter in service was asked to call the secretary, Mrs. Margaret Johnson, or the lecturer, Mrs. Elmer Ploss, to give them the name and address in time for Christmas mailing.

Plans were made for a harvest supper for the next meeting, the menu to be in keeping with wartime rationing and details to be announced later. Mrs. Van Horn gave a reading for the program.

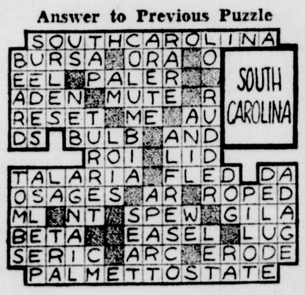

To conserve the existing supply of Balata, used in making self-sealing airplane tanks, the WPB has forbidden its use for any other purpose. Golf balls, belting, shoes, hats and cable insulation are products affected.

Local Zontians Are Hostesses For Inter-City Banquet and Gathering At YWCA Saturday

Forty-one members of six Zonta clubs and three guests joined in an inter-city service meeting at the local YWCA Saturday evening in celebration of the 23rd anniversary of Zonta International.

Preceding dinner, "America" and "God Save the King" were sung, the latter as tribute to the Toronto and Hamilton clubs included in District 3, Region A of Zonta International, but unable to send representatives. Group singing was led by Mrs. Marguerite Painter of the local unit, accompanied by Mrs. Eleanor Knupp and Miss Anna Knowlton of the Jamestown Club.

Mrs. Jessie Davidson, local president, was in charge. Reports of service included many phases of war activity. Lois Wells, Erie president, reported that her unit, in cooperation with the Exchange Club, had secured three rooms and furnished them for the United States Coast Guard, formally opening the place on Saturday.

Several units showed that councils made up of representatives from nationally or internationally affiliated service clubs are of great value in coordinating service activities of civic clubs to insure filling of all community needs and in preventing duplication of such efforts. The great parade, Women in Wartime, in which 10,000 women marched to stimulate war bond sales was the result of such cooperation according to Dr. Zoe Johnston, of Pittsburgh. Other club presidents reporting were Miss Knowlton for Jamestown and Mrs. Mildred Mead for Olean. Miss Lillian Dickson gave the report of the Tonawandas and Miss Ann Snyder for Warren. Written records of those unable to be represented were read by Miss Snyder, also. Greetings were read from Miss Winifred Hughes, president of Zonta International, and the Warren Business and Professional Women's Club.

Miss Isabel Brugge, of Jamestown, chairman of District 3, touched briefly on Zonta history and of the services Zonta is giving today; also that Zonta International has nominated Madame Chiang Kai-Shek to sit at the post-war peace table. Among guests were Miss Ruth Forsht, of Pittsburgh, special deputy attorney general, and Dr. Johnston, only woman physician in the Cancer Research Association.

On the general committee for this successful occasion were Miss Agnes McLaughlin, Mrs. Althea Correll, with Mrs. Nancy Ellen Parvin, Mrs. Marjorie Dougherty and Dr. Elizabeth Beaty, hostesses; Mrs. Mary Corah and Miss Wilda Peel, decorations; Miss Alice Davis, programs; Mrs. Painter, music.

Warren Keglers Experience No Difficulty In Beating Jamestown In Special Match

Spilling fifty-one strikes and averaging an even 200, Pete Juliano paced the Warren doubles combination to an easy win over a pair of Jamestown bowlers in the final ten games of their twenty-game series, rolled on the Penn Bowling Center lanes, Sunday evening.

Juliano and Chick Check totalled 7772 for the twenty games to the 7490 of Joe Munella and Sammy Fashano, of Jamestown, to win by a margin of 282 pins after coming off the Falconer slides with a 20-pin deficit.

In the final ten games the Warren keglers hit 3874, Juliano pitching 2,000, and Check collecting 1874. Fashano fired 1798 and Munella had 1774 to give the visitors 3572, as the out-of-towners found the local lanes not to their liking and faltered with the pressure on.

High game Sunday was Juliano's 258, the local alley manager also hitting games of 211, 203, 210. Chick got four two hundred games, opening with 223, coming back in the third with 222, and firing 213 and 203 in later stanzas.

Originally a $100 money match, the betting Sunday night hopped the total close to the $500 mark, most of the visiting fans backing the Jamestown team by the game after the match apparently was in the bag for Warren.

The Penn alleys were packed with fans who paid $25.70 in dimes and quarters to see the match. The entrie proceeds will be added to the money being collected at the local alleys in a series of USO benefit affairs.

MURDER on the Campus

By JERRY BRONDFIELD

Chapter 14

A Different Todd

SATURDAY was cold and gray. The sun tried to break through heavy overhanging clouds but couldn't quite make it. Susan, Jane and Amy sat together with a heavy blanket over their knees. A chilling wind swept down through the stadium.

A newspaper was folded on Jane's lap with a headline revealed:

MALONE REJOINS SQUAD AFTER STRANGE ABSENCE

But it wasn't the usual Todd Malone on the field that day. Susan could hear criticism all around her of his play-calling. Once he missed a block completely and remained on his hands and knees, shaking his head disgustedly. Eddie Luttrell came over and helped him up.

Vanderbilt scored first and held a 7-0 lead going into the final quarter. Finally, Johnny Harris broke through and blocked a Vandy punt and the ball bounced crazily back into the end zone where Bert Elliott fell on it for a touchdown.

The roar from the crowd faded into a note of surprise when Pete Bailey sent in a substitute for Todd. The sub booted the extra point as Todd sat hunched on the bench, a blanket tossed over his head and shoulders.

Five minutes later State scored again on a sustained drive but missed the extra point. Pete Bailey rubbed Todd's back.

"Okay, boy . . . back you go . . . a little fire, son . . . a little fire. Whip 'em up. . . ."

But Todd had no fire that day. It was all too apparent to 45,000 people—and especially to Susan.

"He must have had a bad three days," Jane murmured with a sidelong glance at Susan.

"He did," she returned.

Tight Spot

THERE were three minutes remaining in the final quarter. Todd skipped back to the safety position as Vanderbilt went into punt formation. The Vandy punter got it away and the ball soared down toward Todd, waiting for it on the State 15-yard line.

He moved slightly to the right to allow for the wind as two Vanderbilt linemen thundered down on him. He moved forward as the ball dropped toward his arms.

He seemed to start running before he had the ball. He juggled it for an instant at the end of his fingers and then the Vandy end hit him. The ball bounded out of his hands completely and rolled toward the State goal line. The other Vandy lineman swooped down on it on the four-yard line.

It was in stunned silence that the crowd watched Vanderbilt line up in a single wing. The ball carrier, behind a wall of interference, swept around right end over the goal line.

That made it 13-13. The big clock was stopped at the two-minute mark as Vanderbilt lined up for the extra point. Two minutes to go. If Vandy converted, it would be all over. There would be no time for State to strike back and pull it out of the fire.

The ball came back from center. The Vanderbilt kicker stepped into it but Bert Elliott, crashing in over a protecting back, leaped upward and the ball bounced off his chest.

A gathering, pent-up sigh of relief ran through the stadium. The game ended in a 13-13 tie a short while later.

Good Creditors

TODD lay on the rubbing table in the dressing room, his face buried in his arms, folded above his head. A dull, sick feeling in his stomach hurt him more than the ugly, spreading blue splotch on his side where a knee had landed.

Trainer Johnny Miller worked over him soothingly. The others were dressing quietly all around him. It was a game they should have won comfortably. Gone, now, were their hopes for an undefeated, untied season and a possible invitation to one of the bowl games.

Pete Bailey sat down on the edge of the rubbing table. "How's the side, Todd?" he asked kindly.

Todd didn't answer. He merely nodded his head slightly, indicating he would be all right.

Pete dropped a hand on his shoulder and rubbed it gently. There was no hurt in Pete's heart. He liked to win them all, too, but he knew there was more than a football game in his quarterback's mind.

"See you Monday. But if you feel like taking a walk tomorrow stop at our place. My kid's having a birthday party and he'd love to have you stop in."

Todd nodded again, vaguely.

A sports writer from the Chronicle edged toward Todd but Eddie intercepted him. "If you don't mind, Bob—" he said. The sports writer looked at Todd, then Eddie, shrugged and turned away, seeking Pete Bailey.

Eddie, buttoning his shirt, walked over and stood by the window in the tower dressing room. Down below, the last of the crowd was streaming away from the stadium. Papers littered the ground. The last few motor cars were leaving the parking lot.

Eddie turned from the window. "Come on, pal," he said to Todd. "Duchek and I will wait for you."

"Mind if I go home alone?" Todd mumbled from beneath his arms.

"Yeah—we'd all mind. The whole gang wanted to wait for you, but I said Duchek and I would be enough. Get it?" he said significantly.

Todd rolled over on his back as the trainer slapped him one good whack to indicate the rubdown was through.

Todd flexed his shoulders and looked at Eddie. He smiled weakly. Eddie grinned back.

"I guess I owe the gang a big one for today," Todd said.

Eddie nodded. "But you'll find we're good creditors. We won't press you for it."

Todd swung his feet down onto the floor. "Johnny," he said abstractedly to the trainer. "I guess I'm a lucky guy at that."

ARCADE ALLEYS

In a challenge match between the downstairs of the Pennsylvania Gas Co., at the Arcade alleys Friday night, the veteran bowler Bob Hedberg went wild, hit games of 184-193-168 for a big total of 545, to take high honors for the evening as the donstairs took 3 points from the upstairs big shots. Harvey Rowland a mate of Hedberg took individual honors for one game from him by 1 pin, high score was 194.

For the upstairs crew the best that could be done was by Keith Chase who was hitting the pins little but hard and had scores of 151-170-127 for a total of 448.

It looks like the younger generation is a little too good for the older boys.

Last Night's Bouts

By the Associated Press

New York—Ray Robinson, 144½ New York, outpointed Vic Dellicurti, 153¾, New York, (10).

Portland, Ore.—Lou Nova, 208, Sacramento, Calif., knocked out Ernie Nordman, 195, Goodland, Kas., (4).

Philadelphia — Jiggs Donohue, 142, Philadelphia, outpointed Tommy Cross, 146¼, Philadelphia (8).

Boston—Jack Lamotta, 165, New York, outpointed Henry Shmielewski, 165, Portland, Me., (10).

Seattle—Al Hostak, 160, Seattle, drew with Harry (Kid) Matthews, 166, Des Moines (10).

Boarding House Tackle

Army's Francis Merritt (78) displayed a mess-hall reach to mess up a run down the field by Notre Dame's Russell Ashbaugh (55). Tackle stopped the Fighting Irishman cold as he ran back a kickoff, but Notre Dame came through to win the game at New York, 13-0.

Covering The Sports Front!

By "BOB" JOHNSON

If the scribes of the vicinity were to get together and attempt picking an all-school eleven, we bet that the versatile Dragons would place at least two and perhaps three on the team . . . Taking the first three games—Youngsville, Girard and Erie—Warren's gridders didn't seem to have the ability to be a consistent winner . . . But then the locals cut loose with the power that had been credited to them and severely laced Kane 32-0 . . . In this game and for the first time Bleech, this corner's nominee for all-league wingback, showed the terrific driving power he is capable of performing . . . In several games this year he has been the mainstay of the Dragon powerhouse and has come through with gains at crucial moments to ice up the contest . . . A runner who is never down until his tacklers have actually sat on him and a punter of the best calibre in the league, "Mike" draws all acclaim from this side for that post.

Secondly, we have a brilliant defensive and offensive player in "Big Jawn" Imperial . . . Probably the hardest tackler in the immediate vicinity, he takes over the left tackle position . . . Imperial has played bang-up ball all season, as nothing ever came through his side of the line . . . He seemed to be in on every line play and if he was needed for interference, he also was one of the league's most formidable blockers.

These two at least should make the honor if it comes to pass and, but for the stinging the Warren team received at Bradford, there may be a few who vote otherwise . . . However, for out-and-out good playing they will in all probability be the best.

With one week of the hunting season already over with, we have noticed a great number of hunters who have disregarded the extreme necessity of cooperating with the salvage committee in stopping to retrieve their ejected shotgun shells—so—we have taken the privilege of getting in touch with all sports stores and asking them to place in an easily accessible position a box where you nimrods can dispose of the empties . . . At this writing we have secured Finley's, George Irvin's and the B & B Smoke Shop to take care of them . . . And, fellows, it just takes a second to stoop and recover that shell . . . Let's fill those containers every week! . . . Maybe Billy doesn't like to bowl any more.

ALBINO SQUIRREL

Clair Wineriter, Conewango avenue, hunting in the vicinity of Lander on Saturday, had the good fortune to shoot a pure white squirrel.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Huber, 1612 Pennsylvania avenue, east, have received word that their son-in-law, James McKenzie, died suddenly this morning of a heart attack at his home in Erie. Funeral serivces will be held from the Schaal Funeral Home in that city at 3:30 p. m. Wednesday. Besides his wife, the former Louise Huber, he leaves two children, Natalie Ann and James, Jr., and his father, Will C. McKenzie, all of Erie.

Pledges of support were received from commanders of various colonial garrisons, but there were reports of DeGaullist uprisings which threatened to complicate their efforts to resist.

Formal notification of the Vichy government's severance of relations with Washington was handed to S. Pinkney Tuck, United States charge d'affaires, by Laval shortly before 8 p. m. (3 p. m. EWT) yesterday.

The chief censor at Vichy immediately forbade American press representatives to send any further news dispatches abroad, but the correspondents were advised they could remain at liberty and continue to use their offices.

New American Landings Reported Made On Coast of Morocco

(From Page One)

132 miles south of Casablanca, and at Fedhala, 12 miles north of Casablanca.

Wes Gallagher, Associated Press correspondent with the AEF in Africa, reported that Oran, 250 miles west of Algiers, was the center of Admiral Darlan's German-inspired resistance.

American landings were made at Bous-Fer and Cape Signale some 20 miles west of the port, and the Arzew, 38 miles to the west. Penetrations were made rapidly against the lightest of resistance. Tafouri airbase, near Oran, was captured in a brilliant combat team stroke in the first hours of the attack.

The French communique said Algiers was surrendered after coastal batteries had been overwhelmed and American assault forces had penetrated into the city.

Broken by the attack was the 150-year record of friendly French-American diplomatic relations. Pierre Laval's pro-German collaborationist government notified the United States yesterday that diplomatic relations were severed. Washington received the word with evident indifference.

Rome began to see its fate. An Italian radio commentator said "the horizon is black for Italy—we must expect attacks from any quarter."

Panzer Army In Lybia Is Still On Run

without food, water and transport by Rommel and were rounded up by the British virtually without resistance.

Many of them crowded around British tanks, asking where to go for safety, and were directed off to the east under their own officers to surrender to map-up units.

The Italian high command skimmed over the story of the retreat and took what consolation it could in a claim—unsupported from any Allied source—that its submarines had attacked a large British-American convoy off the Algerian coast, hitting one cruiser.

A Vichy broadcast heard in Switzerland said Italian planes attempted a raid on Gibraltar, but encountered British and American fighter defenses.

Cairo, Nov. 9—(AP)—Remnants of Marshal Rommel's fleeing Africa corps shook loose from the advancing British Eighth Army today and plunged across the Egyptian border into Libya in the vicinity of Halfaya (Hellfire) pass despite a heavy American and British air bombardment which made that route nearly impassable.

British advance forces which had been making a desperate effort to catch the back-pedalling enemy plunged into Libya only a few hours behind the rear Axis troops.

The situation in Halfaya Pass at the moment was described as "confusing."

The British were in close pursuit of the tattered Germans and Italians, and British and American pilots were keeping up their relentless pounding of the enemy.

Appeal For Cooperation Is Rejected

sident Roosevelt's personal plea to "cooperate" with American efforts to block a threatened Axis invasion of the American colonies, looked upon this modern A. E. F. as an aggressor—not a friend.

The conception and execution of the African invasion—poising a dagger toward the fleeing Rommel and his Axis Africa corps—invited jubilation in this capital.

From Wendell Willkie came the observation that "at last we are on the move."

Congressional leaders expressed satisfaction with the momentous military undertaking launched, as Gen. George C. Marshall, U. S. chief of staff, put it, "with the hopes and prayers of America."

A war department announcement disclosed that General James H. Doolittle was now in command of U. S. air forces in the African theatre, under Lieut. Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, with Maj. Gen. George S. Patton in charge of the West African landing; Maj. Gen. Lloyd R. Fredenhall handling operations at Oran and Maj. Gen. Charles W. Ryder at captured Algiers. All the top U. S. officers in the area, including Deputy Commander Mark W. Clark, with rank of major general, and Rear Admiral H. K. Hewitt, naval commander, are in their 40's or early 50's.

Estimated United States' expenditures for war of 77.5 billion dollars during the fiscal year 1943 is over one-third the total monetary cost of World War I to all belligerents, the Department of Commerce reports.

VOLUNTARY meat rationing (2½ lbs. per person weekly) is under way, government rationing is to come. Meat's main value in diet is muscle-building protein. This chart shows the quantity of other types of food that supply the same amount of protein as one pound of red muscle meat (pork, veal, beef, lamb). The substitutes won't make up entirely for meat, however, because some of the proteins, particularly the vegetable, are of less value; and the iron and vitamin contents vary, but are usually less.

AMERICAN diners-out are supposed to deduct from their voluntary meat ration of 2½ pounds per person weekly the amount of meat eaten in restaurants, lunchrooms and hotels. Government rationing later will include a similar stipulation. This chart shows the normal portions of various meat dishes as served in public places. The figures are those given to the U. S. Department of Agriculture by the American Restaurant Institute.
